

Sedbergh Book Town

List of Bookshops

(See also www.sedberghbooktown.co.uk)

Westwood Books – Very large stock of new, second-hand and antiquarian books on all subjects. Some new books. Maps & guides. Sitting area, coffee & toilet. Open seven days a week. Leisure House, Long Lane, Sedbergh (corner of eastern end of Main Street). 015396 21233 – westwood.books@zen.co.uk – www.westwoodbooks.co.uk

Avril's Books at Farfield Mill – Specialist craft, textile and applied arts bookshop, second-hand and antiquarian. Farfield Mill, Garsdale Road. 015396 20026 – 07967 638503 – avrilsbooks@aol.com

Sedbergh Information & Book Centre – 18 different book dealers, offering a wide range of second-hand books. Wide range of maps, guidebooks, postcards etc. Also local and tourist information. 72 Main Street, Sedbergh. 015396 20125 – tic@sedbergh.org.uk – www.sedbergh.org.uk/infocentre

Sleepy Elephant – Local interest, collectables, vintage children's books, folios, maps & guides. Also walking boots & clothing, gifts and cards. 41 Main Street, Sedbergh. www.thesleepyelephant.co.uk 015396 21770 – info@thesleepyelephant.co.uk

Old School Bookshop at Farfield Clothing (Sedbergh town centre) – A small selection of miscellaneous books, but mainly manufacturers & suppliers of outdoor clothing. 015396 20169 – info@farfield.co.uk – www.farfield.co.uk

Clutterbooks – Children's books, collectables, general interest, fiction, maps. Also DVDs, CDs, LPs. All goods donated to raise funds for local charities. 77 Main Street, Sedbergh.

Farfield Mill

Wide range of subjects. Normal Farfield Mill admission charges apply. Farfield Mill, Garsdale Road. 015396 21958 – Farfield Mill

Barry McKay Rare Books - Appleby

Out-of-print and new books from the 15th to the 20th Centuries on all aspects of the history and arts of the book. E-mail for catalogue. Usually open (advisable to phone first) Monday to Friday: 9am to 5pm, and Saturday mornings by appointment.

Kingstone House, Battlebarrow, Appleby, Cumbria, CA16 6XT. 017683 52282. www.barrymckayrarebooks.org – mailto@barrymckay.plus.com.